Early Elementary Learning Adventure

Tabby Slave Cabins

Finish this drawing! Add things to this cabin to make it look like it did when it was a home for an enslaved family.

Garden

Many crops were grown on the island during plantation times. Have you worn or eaten anything today that was made from cotton, corn or sugar cane? (check one):

CORN

SUGAR

Find the  $\frac{1}{4}$  acre posts. How many steps does it take to walk around the  $\frac{1}{4}$  acre? \_\_\_\_\_
Imagine planting seeds every few inches in this space.

Kitchen House

Why do you think the kitchen is separate from the main house?

---

Planter's House

Would you rather live in this house or in the tabby cabins?

Why? _____

Barn

What tools can you find in the barn? _____ and _____

Dock

Many people from Africa were taken and sold to work and live as slaves far away from their homes.

- Label the continents of Africa and North America.
- Label the Atlantic Ocean.
- Draw a line between the west coast of Africa and Florida. This is one of the routes that ships carrying slaves traveled
