

Archeology Program

National Park Service
U.S. Department of the Interior

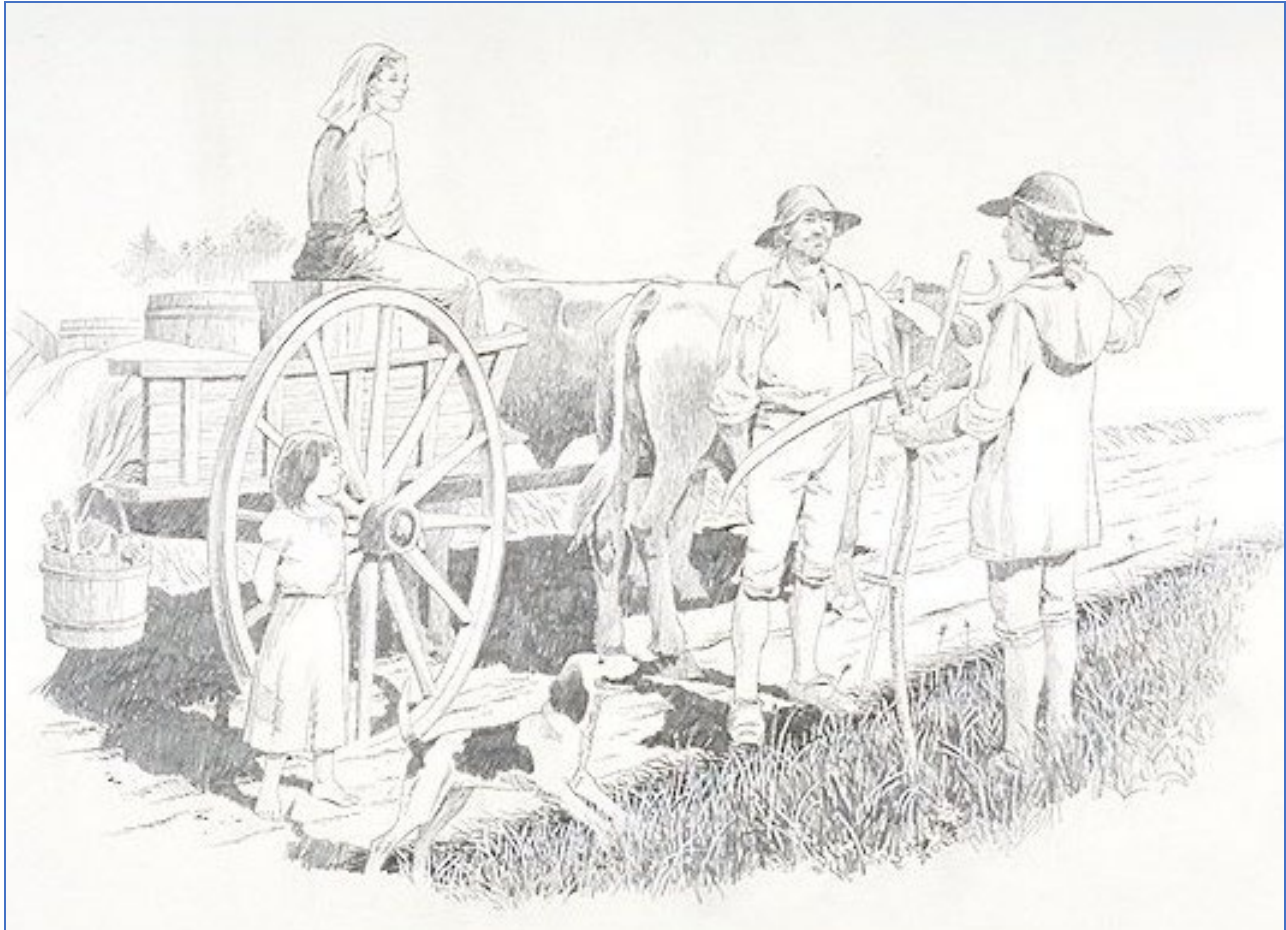

Inference vs. Observation

Name: _____

Activity: Traveling Family

Directions: Examine the image and read the statements under it. Decide which statements are inferences or observations. Next to each statement, write I (for inference) or O (for observation). Be ready to explain your choice.

Caption: Everyday scene from Ninety-Six National Historic Site. Harpers Ferry Center, National Park Service.

1. The woman is sitting on the wagon.
2. The weather is warm.
3. The little girl is standing by the wagon wheel.
4. The dog belongs to the girl.
5. The men are friends.
6. The man on the right is pointing.
7. The dog will jump on the men.
8. The girl is barefoot.
9. The woman is the girl's mother.
10. The men are wearing hats.
11. The girl will get back in the wagon.
12. The family is moving to a new town.
13. There are two wheels on the wagon.
14. There is a bucket hanging on the wagon.
15. The wagon will go in the direction the man is pointing.
16. The dog jumped off the wagon