

Name: _____

Push and Pull Factors

Think about the reasons Highland Scots came to North Carolina. On the chart below, divide these reasons into push and pull factors. Remember, push factors are reasons people leave a place (what pushes them out) and pull factors are reasons people move to a place (what pulls them in).

Push Factors	Pull Factors

Compare/Contrast: The Highlands vs. North Carolina

The Scottish Highlands were different from North Carolina in many ways. Complete the chart below to show the differences.

	Highlands	North Carolina
Climate
Agriculture
Language

Religion
----------	--	--

Answer Key

Push and Pull Factors

Think about the reasons Highland Scots came to North Carolina. On the chart below, divide these reasons into push and pull factors. Remember, push factors are reasons people leave a place (what pushes them out) and pull factors are reasons people move to a place (what pulls them in).

Push Factors	Pull Factors
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● English punished Highlanders who supported Charles Edward Stuart</li> <li>● Population increase due to vaccines and improved farming</li> <li>● Lost land because of changes in agriculture</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Hope for better jobs and business</li> <li>● Tax exemption offered by NC royal governor</li> <li>● Family members who already moved to NC</li> </ul>

Compare/Contrast: The Highlands vs. North Carolina

The Scottish Highlands were different from North Carolina in many ways. Complete the chart below to show the differences.

	Highlands	North Carolina
Climate	Cold, rocky, no trees	Warm, contains swamps and trees
Agriculture	Grew oats and barley; raised cattle	Grew corn and wheat; raised hogs
Language	Gaelic	English

Religion	Presbyterian	Anglican (Church of England)
----------	--------------	------------------------------