Bottom line is we can release the GMP as soon as we get it from the printer.

howdy Brian & Co., so far there is no OES

In any event and as mentioned before, when i confirmed EPA publication date (for their official

Thanks Chris for "heads up", alan Good morning Brian, I hope you are staying dry. I talked to the Secretary's office this am. and they said they cleared the surname package late Friday and sent it to the NPS federal register office. It is cleared to go.
