Howard,

Sorry. Had technical problems (b)(6) not having compatible program to edit the word doc you sent. Had apple install program. Then, following edits, could not save due to disk exceeded. had to go out and get flashdrive this AM. Anyway, as you will see, I suggest some reworking of this last version. I will have another 7-8 questions to add to this from public comment by tomorrow.

Mike

PS. I am concerned about spear and save rec mtg today. For half hour, they have something up their sleeve, and do not want Chris to be set up. anyway that you can be there too?
