COPYRIGHT AND RESTRICTIONS

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted materials. The various state privacy acts govern the use of materials that document private individuals, groups, and corporations.

Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a reproduction if the document does not infringe the privacy rights of an individual, group, or corporation. These specified conditions of authorized use include:

- non-commercial and non-profit study, scholarship, or research, or teaching
- criticism, commentary, or news reporting
- as a NPS preservation or security copy
- as a research copy for deposit in another institution

If a user later uses a copy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," the user may be personally liable for copyright, privacy, or publicity infringement. This institution's permission to obtain a photographic, xerographic, digital, or other copy of a document doesn't indicate permission to publish, exhibit, perform, reproduce, sell, distribute, or prepare derivative works from this document without first obtaining permission from the copyright holder and from any private individual, group, or corporation shown or otherwise recorded.

Permission to publish, exhibit, perform, reproduce, prepare derivative works from, sell, or otherwise distribute the item must be obtained by the user separately in writing from the holder of the original copyright (or if the creator is dead from his/her heirs) as well as from any individual(s), groups, or corporations whose name, image, recorded words, or private information (e.g., employment information) may be reproduced in the source material. The holder of the original copyright isn't necessarily the National Park Service. The National Park Service is not legally liable for copyright, privacy, or publicity infringement when materials are wrongfully used after being provided to researchers for "fair use."

This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if fulfillment of the order is judged in violation of copyright or federal or state privacy or publicity law.

SCOPE AND CONTENT

Collection: 1016

Collection Title: LAKE Maps, Plans, and Drawings Collection

Catalog No LAKE 33400

Accession No LAKE-00707

Inclusive Dates 1896-2013

Bulk Dates 1950-2005

Description

In 1936, Hoover Dam's completion created America's largest reservoir. The lake and surrounding area were originally named Boulder Dam Recreation Area and later renamed Lake Mead National Recreation Area in 1947. The collection follows the park's history as it develops infrastructure and documents the surrounding lands' characteristics. The collection has been generated by LAKE staff and contractors throughout the years.

The LAKE Maps, Plans, and Drawings Collection (1896-2013) contains maps, plans, and drawings of Lake Mead, Nevada, and surrounding land. The collection contains maps that connect to the Lake Mead National Recreation Area's history and development. It includes maps of natural characteristics of the land, maps that show cultural characteristics and significance, and plans of facilities and infrastructure of the park. The collection has extensive natural maps ranging from geography, water, and minerals, to vegetation, wildlife, and boundaries. Design plans and blueprints of the park's infrastructure and site projects are also extensive within the collection.

Arrangement

Organized into five series: Series I, Natural; Series II, Cultural; Series III, Facilities and Maintenance; Series IV, Aerial Photographs; Series V, Education.

Provenance

The LAKE Maps, Plan, and Drawings Collection is the map collection of Lake Mead National Recreation Area generated by Lake Mead staff and contractors throughout the park's history.

Extent

5952 EA

Restrictions

While this collection is open to the public restricted materials have been flagged and require appropriate permission through the Lake Mead Curator and park subject matter expert to access.

Acquisition

The LAKE Maps, Plan, and Drawings Collection is the map collection of Lake Mead National Recreation Area generated by Lake Mead staff and contractors throughout the park's history. The first and only accession, LAKE-00707, is comprised of maps found already in the parks' collections.

Processing

This collection was processed and cataloged at the Lake Mead National Recreation Area by Childers, Chriziel during the Summer of 2021.
