

Connect the Dots

Assateague Island is a great place to be a bird. Connect the dots below to reveal one bird species that comes to the island in spring to nest along the beaches.

I am a small, sand colored shorebird with orange legs. I find food and make my nest on open, sandy beaches. In the United States, I am listed as a threatened species.

Who am I?

G I I N P P

E L O P R V