

Blue Jay

(Cyanocitta cristata)

- Blue Jays sometimes mimic the calls of hawks, and this warns other jays that a hawk is around or can be used to trick other species into thinking a hawk is around
- They love to eat insects, nuts, and seeds
- Blue Jays are excellent mimics and can imitate many different sounds

- Size: Small/Medium
- Color: Blue with white belly