We're more than just a world-class concert venue....

Find the music of nature! Wolf Trap National Park for the Performing Arts welcomes you to explore over two miles of hiking trails ranging through our landscaped gardens, 65 acres of forest, several wetlands, and past two creeks. This wonderful landscape supports a diverse biosystem of plants and animals. Listen for the wind in the trees, the babbling of the water, and the chirps of birds as you enjoy your hike.
